

Dear PHA members and friends,
We are excited to announce that the exhibit, Holocaust by Bullets, is now at the main library on the Tempe campus of ASU. There is information in the newsletter about docent-led tours. We hope you will take this opportunity to see the exhibit. Even more exciting is that you can register to attend (in person or virtually) the long-awaited presentation by Father Patrick Desbois on April 4 at 6:30 pm at ASU. Wishing you all good health,

Best regards,

Sheryl

UPCOMING PROGRAMS

The Dressmakers of Auschwitz: The True Story of the Women Who Sewed to Survive powerfully chronicles the stories of the women who used their sewing skills to survive the Holocaust, stitching beautiful clothes in an extraordinary fashion workshop within the Auschwitz concentration camp. At the height of the Holocaust twenty-five young inmates of the infamous Auschwitz-Birkenau concentration camp were selected to design, cut, and sew beautiful fashions for elite Nazi women. It was work that they hoped would spare them from the gas chambers. March 23, 2022 12:00pm
Registration: <https://tinyurl.com/4fm9k2w5>

HOLOCAUST BY BULLETS

The Holocaust by Bullets exhibit Opened at ASU's Hayden Library on February 27 and runs through April 17. The Exhibition Holocaust by Bullets "15 years of investigation" presents the results of Yahad-In Unum's research in Eastern Europe. It also underscores the "Holocaust by Bullets" as a precursor and model for mass murder crimes today. The exhibit showcases the painstaking research uncovering the step-by-step nature of the crimes committed against Jews and Roma by the mobile Nazi killing units. The exhibition is built around the five steps of the crime identified by Yahad-In Unum researchers based on eyewitness accounts. Information on docent tours below. For more information on Holocaust by Bullets visit the HBB website @ <https://holocaustbybulletsphoenix.com/>

Docent-led Exhibit Tours for the Public Mondays 5-7 pm and Sundays 1-3 pm Feb. 28-April 17 The exhibit is on the main floor of the Hayden Library on the ASU Tempe Campus. Masks Required

Keynote Presentation by Father Patrick Desbois: Holocaust by Bullets and Relevance to Modern Genocides. April 4, 2022, 6:30 pm space is limited. Father Patrick Desbois will be the keynote speaker for the Rosenbluth Family Charitable Foundation Genocide Awareness Week at ASU. Father Desbois is a distinguished author, university professor, historian, forensic detective and world-renowned human-rights activist. He has dedicated his life to fighting the bigotry that fuels genocide and to bridging the divide between faiths. His ongoing work helps bring closure to victims and survivors of genocide and calls for legal justice for the perpetrators.

Father Desbois will speak at the Memorial Union, Arizona Ballroom, on the Tempe campus of ASU. Limited space. Reservations required. When you sign up, you can indicate if you want to attend in-person or virtually. Father Desbois' book, In Broad Daylight, will be available for sale or bring your copy of his books for signing. Registration: <https://na.eventscloud.com/ereg/newreg.php?eventid=664324&>

The Phoenix Boys Choir will perform prior to the keynote presentation by Father Desbois.

Rural Street Klezmer Band will entertain in front of Hayden Library from 5 - 6 p.m. Reserved parking is available.

In Partnership with ASU Rosenbluth Family Charitable Foundation Genocide Awareness Week: April 4 - 9, 2022 Not on Our Watch

The 10th Annual Rosenbluth Family Charitable Foundation Genocide Awareness Week is a series of lectures, exhibits and storytelling by distinguished survivors, scholars, politicians, activists, artists, humanitarians and members of law enforcement. This week-long event seeks to address how we, as a global society, confront violent actions and current and ongoing threats of genocide throughout the world, while also looking to the past for guidance and to honor those affected by genocide.
