Dear PHA Members and Friends
After three years of remote commemorations for Holocaust Remembrance Day also known as Yom HaShoah, we will be gathering in person on April 16 at Congregation Beth Israel. We are planning an excellent program with some new twists! There will be two concurrent sessions at 3 pm and guests can select which to hear. One will be a discussion with Holocaust survivors Rise Stillman and Esther Basch facilitated by Tony Fusco. The other welcomes Professor Margarete Myers Feinstein from Loyola Marymount University who is an expert on Displaced Persons Camps and life of survivors in Germany following WWII. At 4 pm, everyone will move into the sanctuary. A procession of survivors carrying candles will begin the program. We hope many survivors and their families participate. Survivors, please let Elaine Goldenthal know if you plan to attend and if you will need transportation. Elaine can be reached at (480) 330-1547.

Wishing you a meaningful Passover. I look forward to seeing you on April 16.

With love,

Sheryl Bronkesh, President

PHA is proud to announce the premier of a third video for schools:
Inheriting the Holocaust
Featuring Second Generation Descendants of Holocaust Survivors
This 32-minute video is an eye-opening discussion by five local children of Holocaust survivors. They talk about their parents' experiences surviving the Holocaust and how their lives as refugees have impacted this next generation.
